West Valley National Bank Opens Buckeye Branch

West Valley National Bank's new Buckeye branch opened its doors to the public on Monday April 14, 2008. The new branch is located at 111 East Monroe Avenue, Suite 100, in downtown Buckeye, Arizona. The bank will be celebrating its opening with refreshments served in the lobby every Wednesday through the month of April. The WVNB Buckeye branch will also be holding a drawing for prizes and welcomes all members of the community to stop by the branch and enter.

The public is invited to come in and meet Branch manager, Holly Van Dyke, and sit down with the customer service representatives Monika Chmielewski, Adrienne Guillory and Mercedes Gonzales and learn how West Valley Bank can serve their banking needs.

"We are very excited to bring this second branch to fruition and begin working with local businesses in Buckeye," says Candace Wiest, President and CEO of West Valley National Bank. The bank's hours of operation are Monday through Friday, from 9 am to 5 pm. The branch telephone number is (623) 535-2460.

About West Valley National Bank

West Valley National Bank is the first locally owned and operated community bank in the West Valley of the greater Phoenix metropolitan area. The independent bank was established in 2006 by nine local business leaders committed to helping the burgeoning communities of the West Valley reach their full economic potential and enhance the area's overall quality of life.

The bank's comprehensive services are specifically designed to accommodate the commercial market, particularly small to middle sized businesses, and focus on the commercial real estate, development and construction industries. West Valley National Bank strives to deliver the best client services available in the local market, and offer a full line of high-grade commercial banking products through its branches in Avondale, Buckeye, and loan production offices in Goodyear and North Scottsdale.
